マイクラリードロー

EXPERIENTIAL DESIGNER
SUPER PRODUCER
POLYMATH

ABOUT | マイクラリードロー

Mike Larry Draw is a Bronx Born, Grammy Nominated American, "Polymath" super record producer, experiential designer, and Performing visionary. Mike Larry Draw tares down every stage he touches and enchants all attendees in sounds reach. The witty "Ahead of his time" musician performs with a unique, one of one, Wireless Roland SP404A strapped around his shoulder like a death metal guitarist. Mike creates a never seen before show as he rampages on stage, rapping heartfelt and meaningful lyrics. Mike takes pride in the aesthetics and uniqueness of each show, meeting or pop up. His brand is the Clash between Aggressive sounds and elegant soul music. Living by the motto "Do not cut corners", The brand has been operating professionally since 2011. His efforts to propagate conscious material helped solidify him on major platforms such as Bet, WNYC, Bravo and many more. While musical genius and ingenuity are at the forefront of Mike's achievements, the artist extends his innovation to projects that aim to foster creative discourse and opportunities in underprivileged and impoverished communities. Their continued efforts to elevate community engagement can be seen through the boundless numbers of movements he has founded and supported. As the founder and owner of community initiatives such as Kaizen Club, Anomaly Konglomerate and Doroland. Mike Larry Draw proves that he is more than just a mouthpiece for change, but a committed facilitator of intellectual community discourse and outreach through entertainment. He's pushing boundaries as far as he can take it in order to introduce unthought of creativity for futures to come.
